Rules applicable during IKO World Cup Katowice 2024

- Mandatory attire for a second

All seconds must wear a white shirt with a collar, grey or black suit trousers (without patterns) and shoes, preferably those worn with a suit (they cannot wear sandals, be barefoot or only in socks).

These rules apply to all those who wish to act as a second, including competitors who are seconds of other competitors. If a second does not have the appropriate attire, they will not be allowed to approach the mat.

- IKO World 2024 Event Protocol

- National flags/symbols

The public display of national or local flags, symbols or colours, banners or political messages is prohibited in the vicinity of the competition arena and public places where competitors gather, such as warm-up rooms, dining rooms, public transport and hotel accommodation.

- Behaviour during fights:

Competitors and spectators are expected to behave in a manner befitting a member of IKO

KYOKUSHINKAIKAN. It is allowed to support and cheer on competitors with respect *by name*.

- Competitors' nationalities:

Competitors take part in the IKO World Cup Katowice 2024 as individual IKO members, not as representatives of a country.
